Question Answering (QA) Systems is an automated approach for getting the right answers to human questions in natural language. The fundamental idea behind the QA system is to aid interaction between man and machine. As for Question Answering Systems (QAS) application, explore Question Answering Systems research in the following topics.

- Part of speech tagging methods applied in QAS

- Word sense disambiguation for QAS

- Thematic roles identification in QAS

- Various types of parsing applied in QAS

- Wordnet utilization in QAS

- Several lexical relations that would help in obtaining the correct answer in QAS

Cite in your discussion the related references, tools, development kits, libraries listed in.